Eligibility: Membership!

This CALL is open to all members of the Los Angeles Printmaking Society in good standing with up to date 2018 membership.

We hope to challenge our membership to explore this theme and take this as an opportunity to push the limits of printmaking and their own artistic practice. This exhibition will include the best in both traditional and experimental techniques in contemporary printmaking, including works on paper, installation, work made in collaboration with other artists and other multi-media approaches to printmaking. As long as a printmaking technique is the primary process used to create the work for jury.

For any questions on eligibility for entry, please contact LAPSLIST@gmail.com.

Examples of possible eligible entries will be posted on www.LAprintmaking.com and on the LAprintmaking Facebook Group Page.

We ask that artists proposing installations or collaborative projects provide detailed instructions or be on hand to help with the installation. Accepted entries that differ from the submitted image or are unfit for display when delivered, may be excluded.

Accepted Media:

Original works in all traditional processes including monotypes are acceptable. Traditional photography, offset reproductions or reproductions of art originally produced in another medium will NOT be considered. Prints that are strictly digital will NOT be considered. Work that incorporates other media must have a printmaking technique dominant. Examples will be posted on www.LAPrintmaking.com or by request from studiosherwood@sbcglobal.net.

Size:

No size limits, however size of all accepted work will impact amount or work being shown in exhibition. Work that does not need a wall is also encouraged.

Limit of 3 Artworks. 3D art work may include extra images, on request. Artwork that is a collaboration may be submitted only once and at least one artist must be a current LA Printmaking member.
